1. Earlier I had discussed with [REDACTED] C/FI [REDACTED] the general plans of the BPS and the possible assistance which he, as chairman, and the members of the Agency Fine Arts Commission might give to the BPS. I wished [REDACTED] to know that this discussion had taken place, since [REDACTED] works for him, and that it was recognized that FI [REDACTED] which [REDACTED] heads, might have some unique special requirements for non-office space in our planning effort. FI [REDACTED] has filing and searching problems, and FI [REDACTED] officers are participants in sensitive communications with other parts of the Agency, [REDACTED]

2. After discussing the above points, [REDACTED] and I conjectured concerning the future of the Clandestine Service. We considered possible changes in size, types of personnel, special equipment, and communication techniques. We discussed at some length the question of clandestinity and the need for the emphasis to shift [REDACTED]
